

PROGRESSIVE PAST AND PRESENT

Information Bank

The present progressive indicates continuing action, something going on now.

e.g.

I am munching on food.
She is yawning.
You are hilarious.

The past progressive indicates continuing action in the past

I was munching food.
She was yawning.
You were hilarious.

Complete the table with the correct tenses.

Progressive Present	Progressive Past
I am watching television in my pants.
	He was enjoying the dance contest.
The kangaroo is fighting the tree.
	James Bond was scared of the spider.
Andy Murry is never going to be good at cricket.
	You were constantly spinning around and getting dizzy.
I am not impressed with the Queen's hair!
	Within a second, he was rolling around on the floor
Annoyingly, you are not allowed to talk.	